

DAY 1: GROUP 1

Group 1	Group Y
Insert the name of the country	Insert the name of the country
Albania
Belarus
Georgia
Hungary
Kazakhstan
Moldova
Russia
Uzbekistan
Tunisia

Use of technologies

- Albania – yes, but limited (the web site with budget data on annual basis, publication of data on transactions by the Treasury),
- Belarus – yes, but in a limited manner (the web site, the Treasury – a report on execution on the monthly basis,
- Georgia (yes, the web site, budget + data on execution, in the form of final reports, separate web sites of the Ministry of Finance and of the Treasury),
- Hungary (yes, broad range of information on the web site)
- Kazakhstan (yes, the web site of the Ministry of Finance, but mostly in synthetic, contracted form, which cannot be easily understood by non-specialists, electronic procurements and services)
- Moldova (yes, the web site of the Ministry of Finance, information is published at all stages of the budget process),
- Russia – yes (very wide spectrum of tools with utilization of IT),
- Uzbekistan – yes (the web site of the Ministry of Finance, budget + reports)
- Tunisia – the web site, but until recently disclosure of information was not a priority, now the work is being carried out in this area

Important aspects of application of IT tools that enhance their efficiency

- Timeliness of publication of information
- Completeness of coverage of published information
- Reliability of information (the source is indicated, verified)
- Presentation of information on the PFM information system that serves as a source of published information
- Possibility of using time series
- Quality of presentation, utilization of interactive interfaces
- Functions enabling data analysis

Benefits of using information technologies

- Reduction of corruption, improvement of the reputation of public structures in the eyes of citizens
- Getting response (feedback) from citizens and controlling bodies allows avoiding mistakes, making corrections
- Reduction of the burden on employees, and the need in personnel for the purpose of presenting information on various requests
- The source of new ideas from outside concerning what information and how should be presented

Thank you